TRANSFORM YOUR ORGANIZATION

Many high potentials, new managers, and professional women feel stressed, tired, and afraid of being found out. Constant change, complexity, social norms and pressure drains confidence and creates burnout. Fearless in Five offers a practical guide to building confidence, speaking up, and moving forward with clarity and purpose, while harnessing the power of AI. Participants will walk away:

- ✓ Feeling more confident, while knowing how to manage feelings of impostor syndrome. Talented professionals at every level avoid taking smart risks and sharing their most creative ideas until they overcome self-doubt.
- ✓ Speaking with strength—clearly, directly and assertively—allowing them to influence and persuade while staying authentic.
- ✓ Standing up for their needs and ideas, and empowered to proactively map out their future career paths.
- ✓ With a stronger network—comprised of sponsors, mentors, peer mentors and protégés, so everyone collectively grows.
- ✓ Having clear priorities, so they can better balance their work and personal life, and avoid burnout.
